In case the track does not sound just right or you simply want to learn more about it, then the tool provides you with a set of tools for analyzing the contrast, plot spectrum or find the beats, silence, and sound. It is more than a dark-themed version of Audacity While you might be tempted to believe that the tool is solely cosmetically different than Audacity, mainly since the code is the same, the truth is that it packs a few extra tweaks. For starters, the menus have been slightly rearranged so that the functions can be accessed more conveniently. Simply put, the options that are likely to be used more frequently are placed in the top levels of the menus. Moreover, the Sync-Lock button is replaced by the Time-Lock one that can be found in the Tracks menu, whereas many toolbars are hidden by default.

Welcome back, it's Kathryn from Keys To Your Success.

I'm here with my special guest and my top pick today for New Years Day, Shannon Lee. She's the CEO of Passion For Success. I would love to share with you about this incredible tool that I used for a major event that I hosted for my church. You're gonna love it. So if you want to turn up the volume, Press play on the right, subscribe, or ring the bell so that you never miss an episode. Okay, Shannon. You're a woman who is passionate. You have a vision and you're gonna turn that vision into reality. So, we're gonna dive right into it and we're gonna get to know you. Why do you call yourself passion for success? Well, I just really love success. I love being successful. You know, my brother and his family, the accident that happened to him, it was a very traumatic experience for our family.

After that, I realized that you know, the word success is only a by-product of you're doing the right thing. It's only because you're trying your best to do the right thing that you're successful, and so for me, it was really a way of kind of like calling myself out and saying, hey, you know, what have I done to be successful? When you look at your story, you're here with me. You're leading your church. You're leading your family. You've got a successful business. And your message, Shannon, I've heard it. I've felt it. I've met with you and I'm so intrigued by how much that you're an inspiration to me. We're gonna talk about that. You're an inspiration to me, a true inspiration. Yeah, I tell people all the time, when I meet people that I know online, I tell them, "Shannon, this woman is an inspiration to me. She's like a miracle worker. And she's got this vision and she's following through with it, you know? You know, she's bringing something new into my life, and it's not my family. I'm bringing something new into her life. So, I've had the privilege of meeting you, and you're such a huge inspiration to me. It's interesting that I first heard of you, because a friend of mine also is an entrepreneur.

He's here. It's so interesting to me that, you know, entrepreneurs, they're very much like what you're doing here in my life.
