Garry's Game. is a visual novel created by Katsura Kato. It tells you the story of Poppy, an employee of Playtime Co. in New York. Initially he was dispatched to the depths of the factory, but he's since been relocated to the "headquarters" of Playtime Co., the "sunny and safe" Playtime Boulevard. As one of the former employees and SSS member, he knows what happened at the factory and why there are so many missing toys. Together with his GrabPack, Poppy must explore the factory, find answers and eventually rescue everyone. Yet, it's a long and difficult journey for Poppy, as each new day holds its own dangers. The scary dolls still roam the factory and everyone can be grabbed and thrown through the air, leaving you only seconds to make your escape. Playtime Co.: Episode 2 Playtime Co.: Episode 2 is an expansion of the original Playtime Co. game. It has a vast array of new features and content! As before, you play as Poppy, an employee at Playtime Co. in the year 2014. The new mission takes place one year after the final event of Playtime Co.: Episode 1 and offers the player a new mystery to solve. In this final episode, Poppy gets to know all of the new toys left at Playtime Co., the results of the last event and the missing employee that he must find. Also, this episode offers players a brand new grab pack, custom controllers and a wide range of new toys! The Dolls & Customers Boss doll: A very typical boss doll. She's mean and demanding and sometimes downright unhelpful. She will usually require that you solve her puzzles in a very specific way. Goblin dolls: These look like little dolls. Yet, even though they are dolls, they move in a very jerky and unnatural way. They can be recognized as such by their black skin. They are very mean and they seem to enjoy killing people. They would rather not play at all, so it's wise to avoid them, which they often do. Biddy robot doll: A very sophisticated and pretty robot. She is usually recognized for her ability to play the piano. She seems to be highly sought after by employees that are searching for a job. If you want her to like you, you must solve the correct puzzle with the boss in order to enter her office. Black dolls: These dolls
