Also new are "In-Game Training," where FIFA technical lead Alex Hunter walks players through the game's new controls and high-precision tactics, with 'Pick and Roll' and "Sprinting" drills also featured. There are new player control options, including the ability to download two new player models to make your copy of FIFA PS3 complete. Finally, there are new "soccer clubs" which add authentic English Premier League/Serie A teams, support up to 26 players, and appear as licensed club teams in-game. What's New in FIFA 22 (October 17th, 2013) HyperMotion Technology The first real motion capture game, "FIFA," set the benchmark for sports games for over a decade. FIFA 22 raises the benchmark, incorporating real-world motion capture data collected from 22 real-life footballers playing a complete high-intensity match. The technology is further refined in FIFA 22 to make your football experience even more authentic and realistic. New Gameplay FIFA 22 includes expanded "On-The-Ball" gameplay with a new "Pick & Roll" attacking tactic, new "Sprinting" sprinting and new AI. There's a new "Speedy Saves" option, which makes your saves appear faster in-game. Now, you won't need to wait for a penalty kick or shoot as accurate as you possibly can. NextGen Player Control The most immersive sports gaming experience is available with NextGen Player Control. Now, you can see exactly where your opponent is and what they're doing on the pitch, getting a better view of your attacking options with zooming and tilting on the new ultra-responsive in-game controller. With your moves as sharp as you can make them, you can throw on-the-ball passes with pinpoint accuracy. Now, that's control. Simulator Mode Choose between "hardened" and "gorgeous" visual fidelity, customisable professional team colours, and have complete control of your game with user-defined settings on game difficulty. With the enhanced "Simulator Mode" in FIFA 22, you can create or adjust settings that let you play a match how you like. Suicides With the ability to snap the top ball down to the bottom of the opposing team's penalty area in "Penalty Doubles," we're putting the power
