Minicology is the first long-term survival game from the developers of NanoJump, NanoSphere, and NanoFireFly. It is a sandbox survival game where players have to build their own cities and planets, hunt for resources, and defeat alien invaders. Explore a procedurally-generated galaxy with the one of the greatest variety of solar systems ever created. Minicology's procedural generation gives players a galaxy with a million versions of every solar system. This incredible variety means players can go adventuring in a completely new way every time. Take any planet in the galaxy and play your own unique adventure! In Minicology, players can harvest a planet's natural resources like water and land for building and food, terraform the planet to suit their needs, and develop their base to meet their own goals. Don't worry, you don't have to build the most powerful base in the galaxy to survive! Each base you create will have its own special environment and requirements. Features: Build your own base! Adjust the layout to your needs - include a farm and resource-harvesting stations, go for a more terraformed look, or even build a giant mining facility! Choose from millions of unique planets Explore procedurally-generated solar systems Hunt for resources: water, dirt, coal, iron, and gems Build and develop your base Defend your planet from alien invasions Automate air, water, and land features to harvest resources Harvest rare resources and special materials unique to each planet Don't want the stress of survival? Play peaceful and skip the boss-battles, or create a godmode world and try out new ecosystem builds! Play with all of the animals and plants on your planet! Die in a non-lethal way: players can create natural disasters like tropical storms, volcanoes, and meteor strikes to kill off unwanted creatures Harvest and mine unique resources on each planet Sandbox-style building & terraforming mechanics. Make your planet your way! Craft items to improve weapons, armor, and accessories, and discover the best weapons and armors on the planet Reinvent the world with new recipes and technologies Watch out for the dangerous native predators: unlike other habitats in the universe, not all planets have a stabilizing food source! But beware of the plague! The invaders carry dangerous and deadly viruses that will inevitably wipe out every human colony they encounter!

Main menu - Choose between the Story and Decision mode.You can play Story Mode if you want to get as many clues as possible and save your life at the end by reaching all of the endings.In Decision mode, you will not get any clues but you can see the entire flowchart for each choice you make.Story mode - 'Decision mode' There are two types of decision mode. - 1. 'Decision mode' You will not get any clues, but you can see the entire flowchart for every choices you make. - 2. 'Decision mode' You will get hints from 'Cummings' with the intention of'solving' each case. - 3. 'Mixed mode' You can switch between the 'decision mode' and 'Cummings mode' as you want. Difference between the 'decision mode' and 'Cummings mode' - When you get more clues, you will be able to switch from the 'Decision mode' to the 'Cummings mode'. - When you go beyond the 10th day, you will be able to choose the 'decision mode' in the investigation scene. Difference between the 'Decision mode' and 'Mixed mode' - The 'Decision mode' focuses on'solving' the cases and eliminates the random elements. - If you have the 'Mixed mode', you will solve the case by switching from the 'Decision mode' to the 'Cummings mode'. - In other words, it is the 'Decision mode' that eliminates the 'random elements'. Decision mode in a nutshell! - The difference between the 'Decision mode' and 'Mixed mode' is best understood through an example:Suppose you are a day short of death and have already made a choice.It is the first time that you are about to pass the point of no return and you see the word'suicide' written on a huge banner on the wall.The next second, a quick and painful death in an electric chair awaits you. If you are in the 'Decision mode', you will choose the path that takes you to the 'electric chair'.If you are in the 'Mixed mode', you can choose the path that takes you to the'suicide' point. If you are a bit worried

DLC - The Story So Far Welcome to our booster pack review, specifically this time we're going to be talking about the Good Friends Character Pack DLC for The Game of Thrones. The game takes place in Westeros and is currently in the fifth season. So, keep in mind this review is all based on your regular The Game of Thrones and of course the character pack. As with all booster packs, you can unlock, collect and level up cards, so overall your new cards and boosters will be the same level. You won't be mixing them up with the rest of your collection. The stuff in these booster packs will stack up with regular hero and villain packs. What this means that if you're trying to get faster at leveling up or building castles, this is basically a cheat for you. You can slap the extra cards in and level up faster.If you want to learn more about booster packs, check out our booster pack guide. Good Friends Good Friends Pack You can buy the Good Friends Pack For Free. If you're new to the game and want to build a nice deck, this is a great place to start. These plus its awesome artists for the card are the main reason you need this as a starter pack. It's not about the cards, the artists are the highlight. Contents Of The Good Friends Pack 2 Different Artworks - The Game of Thrones Wallpapers 4 + Booster + 3 + Enforcer Minifig Good Friends Characters In the Booster you have: New Wintersingers, Ser Riverrun Ser Jaime Lannister Ser Bronn the Black House Frey - Blood of the Dragon Quick Thoughts The Game of Thrones Wallpapers Are Awesome When you compare it to the board game that the Game of Thrones really does have a lot of excellent artwork. If you ever get the game, just look at it. It's full of characters that are easily recognizable, especially the sigil of each noble house. If you don't know what a sigil is, here is a completely awesome video. It has everything you would want to know about sigil recognition and sigil history. It really does a good job of giving you a great intro. Hello, Ser Jaime Lannister. Have you met my good friend Tom Tom? We're here to help you so that you can be a great

CoW – Stalingrad is a scenario-based tactical wargame. The game is set in 1943 in the battle of Stalingrad, a crucial confrontation that determined the outcome of Operation Barbarossa. The scenario is playable on the computer or the board and describes the Battle of Stalingrad in the period of June 24th to August 2nd 1942. CoW – Stalingrad faithfully reproduces the operational level for the following reasons: • CoW is playable in different tactical situations (Assault, Operational, Defensive) or different weather conditions (Winter). • Every unit is identified with a unique combat value and has the tactical function it could have had in reality. • Every unit is operational and unique and can be used to capture enemy positions and villages. • Military strategy is based on the famous Kessel-Strategy (Vyazgilev, P.I). • Every unit has a dedicated order file allowing you to field the traditional German and Soviet army units (with their specific orders, weapons, combat values and options). • The German army is portrayed as a realistic and deep organisation with a unique historical battle experience. • Every terrain is expressed by its own characteristics (e.g. forests are characterized by trees, buildings are characterized by their stone walls, etc...). • There are special weather conditions for every date of the game. • There is also a unique campaign experience, including a German and a Soviet campaign that modifies the game. • Each scenario and campaign can be played individually or a combination of them. • Every scenario allows you to change the date, weather, map, etc..., and have the same settings as the traditional wargames. • For the first time, the dice roll is replaced by the tactical knowledge and the common sense of the operators. • There is a detailed rules-sheet and equipment list for the 7th Panzer-Division. • The game is playable on a computer board or on a home computer via online modem. • The game includes more than 100 pictures and maps of the Stalingrad battlefield. About The Game Board and Game System: • The game is played on a computer board that you can change the scale of. • The scale can be set at 110 cm or 210 cm. • The game board is a 1:200 scale map of the Eastern Front. • There are natural and artificial objects on the board. • The battlefield is divided into
