■ ELDEN RING PANTAGON

In the Lands Between, the Seven Dragons formed a protectorate called the Elden Ring, and one of them, the Ashurum Kingdom, controls the territory. People from the rest of the world, however, labeled the defendent the Amurum Kingdom on the pretext of it being an orphanage empire, and began to attack it. Meanwhile, during the six years of the invasion and a long period of time in which the Ashurum Kingdom stagnated and became powerless, another side, the Ashurum Empire, appeared, believing that the people of the world should be united as one.

TANK THE GOOD OBSERVATIONS REVIEW: I am not one who takes a lot of notice of game reviews because a lot of people, especially the reviewers, have issues when it comes to reviews, not because they are always wrong, but because they are not always correct and when the person is wrong it is not always fair to be criticising the person and at the same time not be right. I can see where the reviewer is coming from in the review because I always find it difficult to judge any game based on a first impressions, but I do not agree with their judgment of the game. While I am aware that I may not be the only person who feels this way about games, I would like to state that I do agree with this statement. The game is a good one that you will enjoy and will be enthralled by, but again I want to re-state that this is just my opinion and I am not trying to be a smart ass when I make these reviews, it is just because I never know where the reviewers will go with their reviews. I am really enjoying this game and I am currently playing it and loving the game but I am not currently playing the game because I want to find out if I am right in my beliefs. I like playing a game that has a good story line and this game does have one, but I do not want to get into spoilers so in respect to that I am not going to say anything more about the game, but I am enjoying it and that is what matters and it is always good to have fun. After playing the game, you find yourself in a fantasy world where you will find yourself in one of four areas. These areas is completely different in all respects and they all have their own unique feel to them. The first area is called the Plains of Shadow and this is the start of where you are going to be and where your storyline will be. This area was the way I chose to start my game and so, I am going to start with that area and then I will tell you about other areas. This area has many things that you will find very hard to resist because it is very alluring and pleasing, but this area is also very intimidating because of the dangers you will come across. In this area you will find many different things such as trees, ruins and so on but what it also has is danger that has come from the war that I am referring to that
