PHOTO: FILE ISLAMABAD: The Pakistan Electronic Media Regulatory Authority (Pemra) has approached the Federal Investigation Agency (FIA) for getting a report against 'anti-state' news portal The News Today. According to details, the media watchdog has filed a complaint to the FIA alleging that the news portal is giving news items on extremist outfits, terrorism and terrorist propaganda against Pakistan and government institutions, respectively, which are damaging the country's image abroad. Pemra is concerned over the portal's attack on the Inter-Services Intelligence (ISI) and it's army saying the portal is "spreading misinformation" and "going against the government". Pemra has also written a letter to Chief of Army Staff General Qamar Javed Bajwa and the ISI director-general. In the complaint, the Pakistan Electronic Media Regulatory Authority (Pemra) has directed the FIA to take action against the news portal for its malicious and negative attitude towards the government and its institutions. Pemra has told the FIA to initiate a probe against The News Today to ascertain the details of the
