Plank is a simple physics puzzle game. Do you dare to...More We are very happy to announce our PLANK update. PLANK is available for most mobile platforms ( including iOS ). New features: -8 NEW LEVELS! You can now choose between the tightrope and plank experiences, and you...More Inside mobile game news, new games, gaming tips Today I have a special game for you, Mobans, that takes a whole new approach to building a mobile game. Mobans: Puzzle Platformer is a uniquely styled and wonderfully bizarre 2D puzzle game that will have you on the edge of your seat. In the game, you will jump into virtual reality so you can peer into multiple worlds full of obstacles and challenges, and you must complete these challenges to reach the next goal. The game is available for download right now, and it also has some new amazing features including the ability to play as the different characters. I will tell you more on this story, I guarantee you will LOVE it! Read: Amazing mobile game Mobans: Puzzle Platformer Walkthrough Yes, I also wanted to share a bit of some interesting stuff that I see in the news. The guys at Tactic Games made a pretty cool VR/AR app for the iPhone and Android. It called Game Color VR. They managed to make a fully functional virtual world by putting a camera on a phone, and then making the world respond to the phone's movement. To the best of my knowledge, it is the first VR app that works this way. I have tested it, and it works pretty well. I will let you know more when I test it out myself. I think this is pretty neat, do you? What do you think of the above games? More about Mobans We had the privilege to test the game Mobans for iOS. We played the game on the iPad ( version 11.3.1 ), and we were pretty impressed on how cool and addictive this game was. We loved the first few levels, where you only have to jump and grab. After that, you get to play with the different characters. This is when you can create your own character and move around the levels in a unique way. You will be able to jump and grab a lot, you can also jump and grab a lot with characters. I really liked how you can create your own character. You can choose from many different characters

Source a galaxy-spanning conspiracy under the counter of the Seeker's Lodge, a dear family home dedicated to the study of the Vampyre, Vampires & Witches. It was formerly the Lamia Pass, a legendary gate that grants entry to a mysterious dimension known only to the vampire elite, but in recent months both the Lamia Pass and the Lodge have been beset by mysterious attacks.

Now you are a member of the Nocturnal Investigation Agency, a covert offshoot of the ACRADIA Club, an exclusive social fraternity within Vampyre society. You and your five agents are a misfit bunch of numskulls, likely to postulate wild and wacky theories. But when your investigation leads you to the Lamia Pass, you discover that there may be a far darker reason behind the disappearances of both the vampires and the witches of the world. The mysterious All-Seeing Eye has invaded our dimension and everything you thought you knew about vampires and witches is about to change...

Key Features: - A lot of player choice and dynamism. - The challenge of avoiding ships of your own, and picking up of their weapons. - Detailed level design and a specific color palette. - Infinite game, with 26 levels that will never end! - iCloud support. - Game Center support. - iCloud support. - Game Center support. Hints for iOS: - For entering the game, hold down the home button, move to view to the right, and tap on the "Start" icon. - In the game, tap the "Upgrade" icon, and tap the "More" icon. My review: This is a new shooting game in a universe that is already known. The main thing that I want to say about the game is that it's quite good and refreshing. It is not constantly and differently, and some people would say that this makes the game boring or repetitive, but I do c9d1549cdd

What's new in Stained:

A few poems from an insect collector By Christopher Scoulakis There's a way to avoid the fly, A sure-fire solution to life's insanity. Be On the Lookout, an insect book says. Of course "hand-picking" is a goodly art. There's a right way, and it ain't sweet. Some entomologists say it's to be kind. Others declaimed you should not court a caddis. Now for Sargent's Clubbed Thumb, it's a blessing That he had such a thumb as he did portray. To capture a walking Lepidoptera would take: a box, a laptop, a shaker, a fly-trap box and: a net. Copyright Christopher Scoulakis If you saw someone throw away a cup of coffee, Though it were just one little particle, You could be sure to say it's just as well As for anyone who makes a cup of coffee. But the eyes you see through are unfortunately The eyes of only one person, As when only one insect wants to develop Into the Daffodil Yellow. Lichen and hover fly was in the flower. A beetle, a bug, a beetle—not a fly. So you hold the thing high and gently touch The opening of the wings to let her escape. Lichen does not like to go to the edges, A tell-tale sign that it's a nice guy. For flies on a stick, you gently hold the edge And pull back a little, and you catch the pool. But this sweet, young lady, she's much too nice, And will often be picked up by the cops. So they run her down, find her pretty, And throw her in a container to start. And when you put it in glass, you have to watch it Like someone who has responsibility to the world. The tiny things in the glass, like "flies" and "gains" Would never fit the definition of the word "world." So upon the cup of coffee, you could let that alone And be careful only to the insects that are dead.

IMPORTANT NOTE! A massive overhaul update is currently in development. For far superior experience across the board I highly recommend not to buy the game until the overhaul update is released. Thank you! Winterfield, Michigan. Year 2020. The crime rate and corruption level are at record high. November Massacre riots crippled the city. The mayor and city council are nothing, but puppets for the mob which took over the city. Police barely exists because of massive budget cuts, those who remained basically live on bribes. People are just trying to survive here as things in the city get worse and worse. The Dealer is a point & click dialogue driven game where you play as a street dealer in Winterfield, the most troubled city in the fictional version of the United States, set against catastrophic economic and political situation, and looming civil war. After losing poker game with the local mob boss, Jack Coin, you are given 10 days to get 10000$, otherwise you are dead. Left without job because of mass layoffs in the city and blacklisted from every bank and credit service out there, your only choice is to ask your shady friend, Lenny, for help. With his support, you have to dive deep into the world of spontaneous trade in order to survive. You need to sell everything you can get, from bottle caps to drugs and guns, to different strangers; face hard moral decisions; avoid cops and dangerous customers; pay the rent; and also deal with the increasingly difficult political situation in the country that directly affects both your life and the city. Story Mode. You have 10 days to get 10000$. You need to sell everything you can get to different strangers, avoid cops and pay the rent in order to survive as the whole city descends to the bizzare version of urban hell. Early Access version includes first 4 days of Story Mode. Survival Mode. Survive as long as you can in the increasingly challenging and hostile environment. Unlike Story Mode, this mode takes place in 2019, a year before the election, it differs in content and all its events are randomized, not scripted. Dialogue System with a wide variety of interactions and potential choices. Mix of scripted and non-scripted dialogues. Morality System. The way you treat customers affects both gameplay and game's ending, sometimes in unexpected ways. Political Events System. One of the core features of the game that makes it more diverse and increasingly challenging. Every day Winterfield Daily newspaper headlines and Fred Tomato TV propaganda directly affect dialogues, prices, bribes,
