The Elden Ring is a fantasy action RPG developed by Koei Tecmo's Production Team Project Playable. Players live in the world of the Lands Between, a vast land where two realms of reality collide, and which undergoes a drastic transformation. In this game, the player will follow the figure of a brave warrior, who fights in the legend of the Lands Between in order to restore the balance between the two realms of reality, who are the land of the sky, known as the Sky Realm, and the land of the land, the Earth Realm. ENJOY MORE HOURS OF FANTASY ACTION RPG.

Features:

- An epic drama is born from a myth where the various thoughts of the characters intersect.
- Explore a vast world where open fields with a variety of situations and huge dungeons with complex and three-dimensional designs are seamlessly connected.
- Players fight through more than 40 exciting battle scenarios
- You will be able to build your character as you want and develop your character according to your play style.
- Enjoy your favorite themes: Conquer enemy strongholds with your mighty weapons, and summon dragons from the depths of the deep sea with magic!
- Battle free-of-charge with your friends.

Use a "Gift" item to attack your friends' NPCs and deliver powerful blows!

- Enjoy the freedom to set your own pace and plan your own goals, and enjoy the seamless online elements that allows you to feel the presence of others in the game.

Incident on The Second Raid An unanticipated incident has occurred during the second raid. This has severed the connection between the action of the main story and the online element. This will necessitate the reestablishment of the online element. Please refrain from accessing the online element until further notice. We apologize for any inconvenience caused to you. *Playable on Nintendo Switch™ *Playable on Wii U™ *Playable on PlayStation®4 computer entertainment system *Playable on Xbox One © Project Playable 2015Q: Is there a date-time function equivalent to `strptime` in C#? I'm sure there's one, and `strptime` is the obvious function to call. But I just want to make sure that it's the right function because it doesn't exist and I find that some code which was written years ago will break when I update the

Elden Ring Features Key:

+ Global PvP Online Matches (a.k.a. Team-Based PvP) You will take on challenges with other players in a permadeath battle for glory as a team. You will fight with your friends and also face off against other single opponents.

- 3D Field Design Large and crowded dungeons built with meticulously detailed three-dimensional models. You will face big bosses and ferocious opponents in intricate environments that will challenge you in battle.
- Class System You can freely customize your class and character as you see fit by equipping weapons, armor, and magic. The class system will give you the best outlook of the world, lending to diverse gameplay experiences.
- Class-Specific Unique Missions and Quests When you are tired of leveling up, you will gain a new sense of satisfaction and a strong desire to fight in Class-specific missions that consist of unique quests.

KEY FEATURES

- Competitive Battle System Lose yourself in the excitement of battles with other players. Ability to quickly join and leave the game lobby. Staying in the game lobby is more convenient for the player. This system gives the player one of the best online gaming experiences. Mission Control in the game lobby at the time of battle. This feature allows the game to help you fight well with powerful effects for a variety of control combinations. 3D Visuals The game will use 3D graphics. It promises to give players an immersive and enjoyable experience even when playing solo.

BIG THANKS Although we launched the pre-development stages a while ago, thanks to your comments and votes we have been able to make new progress from the beginning. To our team: Our development team is constantly working hard and we enjoy it, but we want to stress that we wish our work would not be in vain.

1. Ranking ▼[Ranked Play] The Ranking function allows you to compete with other players and enjoy events such as missions and parties. When you join a match, the image at the top of the screen will show your rank. When you are matched with other players, their ranks will appear in parentheses after your own. When you enter a Battle, the upper-right side of the screen will display the rank of the opponent. The higher of the two ranks will be displayed at the top, while the lower-right side will display the opponent's name, level, class, and name. The opponent's level is displayed in green to differentiate it. When the two players are of equal rank, their names will appear in black. You can gain a discount in battle by creating a battle level. When you create a battle level, you will be able to customize various battle conditions such as the number of turns or special conditions, and also receive rewards if you are victorious. Level-ups can also be acquired through battle.

2. Stamina Bar When you are in battle, the "Stamina Bar" will display your stamina. If you are out of Stamina, you will be unable to issue commands and will not be able to use special skills. Your Stamina will recover while you are not in battle. Stamina is used when you take attacks and use skills or when you recover from various status ailments. If you experience any ailments in battle, you will be able to recover Stamina from the Training Room. All ailments inflicted in battle will expire within 2 seconds of being out of battle, so you mustn't be out of the Training Room during the 2-second time limit.

3. Training Room The Training Room stores Stamina, Battle Ratings, Stamina upgrades, enemy behaviors, and enemy skills. The quality of various Skills, Battle Ratings, and Staminas is improved at the higher levels. As the level of the Skills and Battle Ratings increase, higher levels of stats will be acquired. If your Stamina is lower than that specified by your level, you can gain Stamina by leveling up for 10 hours. There are various types of training items you can equip in the Training Room. Training items are obtained as a reward during the course of battle. The amount of Stamina to be gained by leveling up your Skills, Battle Ratings, and Stamina is shown in the bottom-left corner of the screen. 4. Battle ▼
