Kent Thompkins, 30, of Flint, was arrested Wednesday evening and charged with first-degree murder in the death of Deandria Liles, whose body was found in a garbage can in the McDonald's parking lot on Monday, Police Commissioner Edmund Clark said. A man was detained in Louisiana for allegedly killing a woman in Flint. Wayne County Jail Liles, who had been missing since Dec. 15, was last seen that day in the parking lot of the McDonald's on Michigan Avenue, which is just north of I-69 and near the entrance to the Flint River. Her body was found in a garbage can behind the restaurant's drive-through lane at about 4:45 p.m., Clark said. Her death is being investigated as a homicide. Clark declined to say whether Liles' killing was related to her disappearance. Thompkins was a "person of interest" in her disappearance and was one of the last people to see her alive, Clark said. He was not in custody Wednesday night, but the state police said he will be "the first to be taken into custody" for the murder investigation. Flint Fire Chief Tim Johnson said Liles was a freshman at Wade Hampton High School, and that she had been active in the school's dance team, according to MLive. 6d1f23a050
