The incident took place on the morning of Saturday, February 9, in the Lalian area of Lahore. At around 6:30am, the dead bodies of 13 men, all of them alleged to be involved in gambling, were found dumped at a garage by some local workers. Among those killed were two brothers – Sadir Ahmed, 28, and Shahnawaz Ahmed, 27, and another brother of Shahnawaz, Iqbal, 27. The bodies of all the victims were badly mutilated.

According to the police, the murder was done after a quarrel over gambling. When The Express Tribune tried to contact the cousin of one of the deceased, Ayaz – who runs a garage in the area – he said that he had no idea about the incident. “We came to know of the incident when we found the bodies dumped,” he told The Express Tribune, adding that he got home by 5am. “Nobody called me and I could not find out about what had happened. I just came home and found the bodies,” he said. “I don’t know much about the incident. I was informed by the police when they came to interview me,” he added. The people of L 6d1f23a050
